CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

TUESDAY, 10 APRIL 2012

The seminar will discuss:

- ✓ A definition of Corporate Governance and its place in modern company law;
- ✓ Understanding the basic issues on Corporate Governance;
- ✓ Principles of Good Corporate Governance – a benchmark;
- ✓ A Discussion of some Governance Structures.

THE SPEAKER

LOUIS DE GABRIELE joined Camilleri Preziosi in 1993 and was invited to partnership in 1995. Since joining Camilleri Preziosi Louis has been involved principally in corporate finance transactions spanning a number of deals both locally and internationally.

Louis has led the Camilleri Preziosi team in a number of Privatisation transactions and capital market issues and has been involved in numerous M&A transactions both locally and multi-jurisdictional.

He is currently the partner responsible for the Corporate and Finance Practice Group within the Firm incorporating M&A, Banking, Tax and Capital markets.

Louis is also very active in advising a number of private sector clients particularly in the M&A finance sector.

In the Corporate Governance area, Louis has advised a number of corporate clients in their preparation for listing on the MSE and compliance with the Code of principles for Good Corporate Governance. He also advises clients on an on-going basis on good corporate practice and governance structures.
